OPINIONS

THE HINDU (Madras) :-

This is a book that would help a man along the paths of self-realization. Such aid is wanted by several in their life's pilgrimage and it is enough to say that the selections contained here are choice and apt. The author advises that certain moments of the day be set apart for contemplation, calling them GOD'S MOMENTS, and as a helpful book for reading them, he has given the book itself that title.

MIRA (East and West):-

GOD'S MOMENTS,—a book full of inspiration and beauty. Every page of the book, from the beginning to the end, breathes love and inspiration. Part one of the book is "Outpourings and Musings" of the talented author, (32 pages only). Part 2 of the book contains "Prayers, Poems and Thoughts" of the Great Ones of Humanity. Each word of the ancient wisdom is worth its weight in gold.

Shri Sadhu T. L. Vaswani:-

The quotations in the book will, I feel, carry their appeal to many aspiring hearts. Shri Motwani has, in his anthology, brought together and blended many lights from many Lamps. They are all emanations of the One Light,— the Light that shines in all prophets and saints, all mystics and karma-yogis,— servants of humanity and builders of civilization.

Professor L. H. Ajwani:-

Whatever it be, it is worthwhile treasuring up a publication like this, with the faith and hope that it will induce in us a state when we may pass for a moment into God, or when God may choose to pass into us, so that our earthly pilgrimage may near its destination, and the dry drop of our soul prepare for condensation, and reception into the sea, its Source and only Strength and Solace.

Diwan Mohanlallji of Ajmer.
Patriot, Politician and Saint of Modern India

GOD'S MOMENTS is replete with great thoughts and sayings by the Prophets, Saints and Seers of India and outside whose invaluable contribution for the emancipation of humanity from the abyss of darkness shall always evoke universal gratification. The life of asceticism is manifest throughout the book which is a treasure of practical wisdom and spirituality. Shri Motwani has rightly emphasised on action without desire which is capable of paving the way to self-realization. May the book be a source of inspiration to every reader.
